Nominated Charity 2009/2010

Members are reminded that the charity to be supported during 2009/2010 will be decided at the AGM on 19th March. Any member wishing to propose a particular charity should submit his or her nomination, with a short supporting written statement, to the secretary, George Murrell, by 24th February. Alternatively, it may be handed to any other committee member.

George Murrell

At the AGM we are also due to elect members to serve on the Sidcup & District U3A Committee. A nomination form is attached to this Newsletter should you wish to put forward your name, or that of another member, for consideration. Please note that the interesting job of Group Co-ordinator will become vacant this year and anyone who wants to know what it entails should speak to the current holder, José Steward, for more information. Also attached is a form with which you may propose our supported charity. Both forms are available for download from our website.

The Raffle

A further £160 has been raised since June, making a total of £240, which will be donated to our current charity, the RNL. So many good gifts are donated that our expenses are minimal, thus helping in our fund-raising efforts. Thanks go to all who support the raffle.

I have run the raffle for several years now, and feel it is time for someone else to take over. I am delighted that Judith Bishop has volunteered to run the raffle in future, and I wish her every success.

To All Group Leaders

Would you please let me have a list of the members in your group so that I can bring the records up-to-date. If you could let me have the list at the January U3A Meeting, or by e-mail, that would be good. Thank you.

Ramblers 1 : Leader Annette Jansen

Christmas Ramble 2008

We met on Keston Common following what had been a few very wet days. We were lucky in that we saw an occasional patch of blue sky but no rain, and discussion on whether this made sailor's trousers or Dutchman's pants was not resolved. The walk was amazingly rural given that we were so close to Bromley and the five miles were soon achieved. We then returned to our cars for a change of footwear to be ready for our Christmas meal at the Greyhound. This was excellent in every way: a table for eleven people was set in seasonal manner, and, after ordering our well earned drinks, like children we fell upon the crackers and were defeated by the 'unpredictable' mottos. The three course meals were a treat and were followed by a coffee and a mince pie for all. Everything was served with a smile. My thanks go to Pat Peeney for arranging this, and to my Group for being such a companionable bunch on every occasion.

Ramblers 2 : Leaders Pat & Alf Cracknell

It was a cold, foggy morning for our December ramble but, nevertheless, sixteen members set off for our walk from Badgers Mount. After crossing the bridge over the M25, we walked through Andrews Wood, descended into a valley, crossed a field and climbed the other side of the valley into Meenfield Wood. It was only a three mile walk but the climb towards the end made us feel that we had earned our Christmas lunch. We were then joined by other group members and friends and 24 of us enjoyed a meal at the Badgers Mount Toby Carvery.

Freedom Pass Explorers : Leader Val Gosden

In October we visited Elm Park which is not far from Hornchurch. Our first impressions were of suburbia with individual shops radiating out from the four arms of a roundabout. However, when we wended our way to nearby Harrow Lodge Park a wonderful surprise awaited us. The river running through this large park widens out into a big lake upon which we spotted, perhaps, as many as a hundred swans and cygnets, with about twice as many geese nearby. There was also a lovely fountain in the centre of the lake. The park had been interestingly laid out with a variety of trees, many of which were wearing their autumn colours of yellows, oranges and reds. It was all in all a pleasant day's autumnal stroll.

Explorers, however, must be prepared for more or less anything. Our November trip started late as trains were delayed for nearly half an hour: nonetheless there were fifteen intrepid explorers prepared to brave the rain which fell steadily throughout our visit. We travelled to Richmond, Surrey, and, after enjoying our usual visit to a coffee shop, we opened up our umbrellas, walked past Richmond Green and then on towards the full, fast-flowing river. We walked towards Richmond Bridge, but, when nearly there, decided that a return to the town was indicated. A few of us wandered along looking into the shops, but most felt that the station held a greater allure. I doubt there was anyone who went home completely dry!

December, it was felt, was the only month in which to visit Turkey Street (near Enfield). We arrived in time for an early lunch at a local café; we were impressed with both its cleanliness and the prices, but there was no turkey on the menu! Afterwards we had a pleasant walk alongside Turkey Brook using footpaths for some of the way, before returning to the station via Turkey Street. We felt that to walk round a local park at Forty Hill would have been interesting in summer, as also would have been a visit to Myddleton House Gardens, but we decided to return home before it got dark. Turkey Street, it has since been discovered, has nothing to do with either the country or with birds; it is most probably a derivation of one of the words 'Tuckey' or 'Tuttle' – these presumably being farmers or landowners in the past.

Classical Music : Leader Derick Johnson

We started with an overture by Hector Berlioz called "Les Francs-Juges" {the free judges}; this is a little known title but the music is quite well known to most of us. This was followed by Franz Joseph Haydn's The Creation, Part 1: "The Representation of Chaos" and "The First Four Days". With Christmas shopping in the high street this would seem to be very apt. The next piece was the Piano Concerto in A Minor by Robert Schumann, an excellent item to introduce the interval during which Olive treated us to home made mince pies – which were very welcome. To start the second half we had Jacob Mendelssohn's Symphony № 4 in A (The Italian), which was very popular, followed by Edward Elgar's "Serenade for Strings" and we rounded off the afternoon with Hungarian Dances Nos 5, 6 and 7.

Frank Whipp

! "Les Francs-Juges" is the title of an unfinished opera by Berlioz who abandoned it and destroyed most of the music. The work is set in mediaeval Germany and "free judges" refers to the secret "Vehmic" trials held in Westphalia during the Middle Ages when the holy vehme, founded by Charlemagne in AD 772, took jurisdiction over all crimes during this lawless phase.
